Act, 1883 as extended to Himachal Pradesh having been confirmed by the Lieutenant Governor are published for general information and shall come into force on the 1st day of July, 1952 :—

PROVIDENT FUND RULES

Provident Fund Rules for the Employees of the District Board, Sirmur, Himachal Pradesh

1. Definition.—In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or the context :—

- (a) "BOARD" means the District Board of District Sirmur Nahan, Himachal Pradesh.
- (b) "INTEREST" means interest accrued on the balance at credit of a subscriber to a provident fund calculated as if such balance were a deposit in the savings Bank.
- (c) "SALARY" means monthly salary and includes special pay as defined in the Fundamental Rules, but does not include travelling allowance, Conveyance allowance or other such allowance ;
- (d) "SAVINGS BANK" means the post office savings bank and savings bank of any branch of the Imperial Bank of India or Bank of Sirmur.
- (e) "SERVANT" includes every employee of a Board who holds a substantive post under the Board and every temporary employee of a Board who holds a substantive post under any other Local Body which maintain Provident Fund, but does not include a Government servant employed by a Board ;
- (f) "SUBSCRIBER" means servant who is required or permitted to subscribe to a Provident Fund ;
- (g) "THE ACT" means the Punjab District Board Act 1883 as applied to Himachal Pradesh.
- (h) "THE CODE" means the District Board Account Code, 1926 as applied to Himachal Pradesh.

2. Servants who shall or may contribute to the provident Fund.—Every servant appointed or promoted, on or after the date of the Board's resolution to establish and maintain a provident fund, to an office of which the salary is not less than twenty rupees shall be required to subscribe to such Provident Fund at the rate of six and one quarter percent of his salary, and any servant appointed or promoted to such an office before the date of such resolution may subscribe to such fund if the Board so permits : Provided that the Board may allow any servant appointed or promoted to an office of which the salary is less than twenty rupees to subscribe to the provident fund in accordance with these rules.

3. Recovery of subscription.—(1) Every subscription to a Provident Fund shall be recovered by means of a deduction of the amount of such subscription from each salary bill of the subscriber : Provided that in calculating the deduction to be made fractions of a rupee of salary shall be disregarded.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 2 or in sub rule (1) of this rule, no servant shall be required or permitted to subscribe to the Provident Fund while he is absent on leave except during the four months of leave on average pay or, in the case of a servant who is entitled under orders previously in force to privilege leave, during such privilege leave on the first occasion when leave is taken under the provisions of the Fundamental Rules.

4. Board's contributions to the Provident Fund.—The Board shall contribute to the provident fund of each subscriber an amount equal to the amount of his subscription :

- (a) If a subscriber, who is required or permitted to subscribe to a provident fund for the first time on or after the date in which these rules come into force, resigns the service of the Board before the completion of ten years service, except on account of illness or any other cause, he shall be entitled to only half the contribution made to his provident fund by the Board and interest thereon, and if such a subscriber so resigns before the completion of five years service except on account of illness or such other cause or aforesaid he shall be entitled to none of the contribution made to his provident fund by the Board or interest thereon ;
- (b) If a subscriber is dismissed from the service of the Board, the Board may, with the sanction of the Lieutenant Governor withhold the whole or any part of the contributions made to his provident fund by the Board and the interest thereon ;
- (c) In case the services of the subscriber are dispensed with on account of retrenchment he shall ordinarily be entitled to the Provident Fund contributed by the Board and the interest thereon unless there is some charge of misconduct against him.

Provided further that with the sanction of the Lieutenant-Governor the Board may contribute to the Provident Fund of each subscriber an amount equal to less than the amount of his subscription.

5. Ledger accounts of subscribers.—(1) The Board shall maintain a Provident Fund Ledger in form P.F.1., of which separate portions shall be assigned to each subscriber, and there shall be entered therein each month the amount of each subscription, the amount of the Board's contributions and the monthly balance on which interest is to be calculated.

(2) The amount of interest accrued on the balance at the credit of a subscriber shall be calculated at the end of the year or when the account is closed to the nearest pice on the lowest balance, excluding fractions of a rupee, at the credit of the subscriber between the close of the fourth day and the last day of each month.

(3) At the end of each year the Board shall furnish each subscriber with a statement in form P.F.2, showing the balance at credit of his account at the beginning of the year, the amounts added thereto by way of subscriptions and contributions and the interest accrued during the year and the balance at credit of his account at the end of the year.

6. Payment of subscriptions and the contributions to be made monthly to the Post Office Savings Bank.—(1) The Board shall open an account, to be called the Sirmur District Board Provident Fund account, with the savings bank, and as soon as may be at the beginning of each month and, if possible, before the fourth day of each month shall pay into such account the amount of all subscriptions recovered under the provisions of rule 3 and of the contributions payable under the provisions of Rule 4.

(2) Before a cheque is drawn for payment of subscriptions and contributions as required by sub rule (1), a bill shall be prepared in form P.F.3., and submitted with the relevant salary and establishment bills in form 16 and 17 of the Code for signature to the authorised officer, as required by Rule 37 of the Code : Provided that the Board may make payment of the subscriptions and contributions on a single bill and by means of a single cheque in respect of all subscribers or on separate bills and by means of separate cheques in respect of subscribers of different departments.

(3) All cheques drawn under the provisions of sub rule (2), shall be drawn in favour of the post master or the Agent, Imperial Bank of India, or the Bank of Sirmur according as the provident fund account is opened with the post office, Savings Bank or the Savings Bank of the Imperial Bank of India or the Bank of Sirmur.

7. General Rule regarding withdrawals.—No sums shall be withdrawn from the Provident Fund account with the Savings Bank, except :—

- (a) under the provisions of sub Rule (1) of rule 8 for the purpose of investment or placement ; or
- (b) under the provisions of sub rule (1) of rule 9 for the purpose of making an advance to a subscriber ; or
- (c) under the provisions of rule 10 when a subscriber's account is to be closed for payment to the subscriber or his heirs.

(2) Wherever a sum is withdrawn from the provident fund account with the Savings Bank such sum shall forthwith be credited to the District Fund under the head IX—Suspense Accounts, C., Advances and Deposits, and payment shall be made therefrom for the purpose for which the sum was withdrawn by means of a separate cheque on a bill in Form 14 of the Code and such payment shall be debited to the Head 9—Suspense Accounts, C.—Advance and deposits : Provided that if any portion of a sum withdrawn is to remain credited to the District Fund under the provisions of any rule such portion of such sum shall be credited by book transfer under the head 1—General Departments, A.—General, (IV)—Miscellaneous Unclassified Receipts, a corresponding debit being shown under the head 9—Suspense Accounts, C.—Advances and deposits.

8. Investment of Provident Fund Moneys.—(1) With the previous sanction of the Lieutenant Governor, Himachal Pradesh the Board may, from time to time, withdraw any sum from the Provident Fund Account with the Savings Bank and may invest or place such sum subject to the conditions and restrictions applicable to the investment or placement of a portion of the District Fund, under sub-section (2) of section 36 of the Act.

(2) The interest obtained by the investment or placement of any sum under the provisions of sub-rule (1) shall be deposited in the Savings Bank to credit of the account of the District Board provident fund ; provided that if such interest is larger than the amount of the interest which would have accrued had such sum remained in the Savings Bank :—

- (a) The difference between the interest so obtained and the interest that would so have accrued shall be credited to the District fund under the head 1—General Departments, A—General, (iv) Miscellaneous Unclassified Receipts ; or
- (b) the whole or part of the difference between the interest so obtained and the interest that would so have accrued may, with the previous sanction of Lieutenant Governor be credited to the accounts of subscribers subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by Government from time to time.

(3) In cases in which the difference between the interest obtainable by the investment or placement of any sum under the provisions of sub-rule (1) and the interest that would have accrued had such sum remained in the Savings Bank, is to be credited to the District Fund, the cost of making any investment under the provisions of sub-rule (1) shall be paid from the district fund, and if, when any such investment is realised, the net price obtained after payment of brokerage and other incidental charges is less than the amount originally invested, the difference shall be made good from the District fund, and if such net price is greater than the amount originally invested the difference shall be credited to the District Fund.

9. Advances.—(1) With the sanction of the Lieutenant Governor, Himachal Pradesh, any subscriber may upto limit of the amount shown at credit of his account in column 6 of the Provident Fund Ledger be granted in advance from his provident fund of an amount not exceeding three times the amount of his salary, for either of the following purposes :—

- (a) to pay expenses incurred in connection with the illness of the subscriber or a member of his family ; or
- (b) to pay expenses in connection with the marriage, funeral or other ceremonies which by the religion of the subscriber it is incumbent upon him to perform and in connection with which it is obligatory that expenditure should be incurred :

Provided that no such advance shall be sanctioned unless the pecuniary circumstances of the subscriber are such that the indulgence is, in the opinion of the Lieutenant Governor, Himachal Pradesh absolutely necessary.

(2) The amount of an advance shall be repayable in not more than twenty-four equal instalments as may be fixed by the Lieutenant Governor, when sanctioning the advance, and such instalments shall be recovered as if they were subscriptions in the manner provided in rule 3.

(3) The amount of an advance shall be recorded in column 5 of the provident Ledger (Form P.F.1) and a note shall be made in column 8 as regards the number of instalments by which the advance is recoverable, and each month the amount of the advance repaid shall be recorded in red ink in column 2 of the ledger and in column 7 shall be entered the amount of the balance of the advance outstanding, and the amount of interest lost on the monthly outstanding balances shall be recovered from the subscriber in the month following the month in which the last instalment of the advance is recovered, and at the end of the year shall be added to the interest calculated on the monthly balances shown in column 6.

(4) If under the provisions of clause (a) or clause (b) of the first proviso to rule 4 the whole or portion of the Board's contributions is to be withheld when a subscriber's account is closed, and if when such account is closed any portion of an advance made to such subscriber is still outstanding, the amount of the advance outstanding plus the amount of interest last calculated on the monthly outstanding balances of the advance shall be added to the amount shown at credit of the account in column 6 for the purpose of calculating the board's share of the total at credit of the account.

10. Withdrawal on closing of account.—(1) When a subscriber dies the amount shown to the credit of his account in column 6 of the Provident Fund Ledger (Form P.F.1) plus interest accrued to date shall be withdrawn from the savings bank, and payment of such amount shall be made :—

- (a) to his widow or widows or children, if any, in such proportions as during his life time he may have declared it shall be payable ; or, if he has made no such declaration ;
- (b) as to one moiety to his widow or, in equal shares, to his widows, and as to the other moiety in equal shares to his children or, if he has left only a widow or widows ; to such widow or, in equal shares, to such widows ; or, if he has left only children, to such children in equal shares ; or falling both widows and children ;
- (c) to his legal heirs.

(2) Subject to the provisions of rule 4, when a subscriber ceases to be a servant of the Board the amount shown to the credit of his account in column 6 of the Provident Fund Ledger (Form P.F.1) plus interest accrued to date shall be withdrawn and shall be paid to him : Provided that—

- (a) if he is transferred otherwise than temporarily to the service of another local body which maintains a provident fund, or when having been transferred temporarily from the service, of another local body he reverts to such service, the amount withdrawn shall be paid to such other local body for credit to his provident fund account with such local body ; and
- (b) if he is transferred temporarily to the service of another local body, the amount shown to the credit of his account in column 6 of the Provident Fund Ledger (Form P.F.1) shall not be withdrawn, but shall remain to the credit of his account.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) no amount shall be withdrawn for payment to a subscriber or his heirs under the provisions of those sub-rules unless such payment shall be made immediately: Provided that if such payment shall not be made within one year if the amount at credit of subscriber's Provident Fund account is ten rupees or less, or within three years if such amount is more than ten rupees, the Board shall withdraw such amount and credit it to the District fund under the head 1—General Departments, A—General. (iv) Miscellaneous: Unclassified Receipts and no payment shall thereafter be made to the subscriber or his heirs except under the orders of the Lt. Governor, Himachal Pradesh.

(4) When an account is closed under the provisions of this rule, a line shall be drawn in red ink across the page below the last entry in the Provident Fund Ledger account (Form P.F.1) and the number and date of the challan with which the amount at credit of the account is remitted to the treasury shall be recorded below the line together with the number, date and amount of the bill or bills on which payments of the amount are subsequently made, and if the amount is withdrawn under the provisions of sub-rule (3) the words "Dead Account" shall be added.

11. Amount to be withheld when account is closed.—Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 10 if any sum is due from a subscriber to the Board at the time when his account is closed, the Board may deduct the amount of such sum before making payment under rule 10 of the amount at the credit of his Provident Fund account.

12. General accounts to be maintained by the Board.—The Board shall maintain a provident fund account in Form P.F.4, a provident fund investments accounts in Form P.F.5 and a provident fund investments interest account in Form P.F.6.

PREM RAJ,
Assistant Secretary (General)
to Govt., Himachal Pradesh.

Simla-4, the 9th July 1952

No. HGT.107-7/52.—In exercise of the powers vested in him under Section 2 of the Epidemic Diseases Act, 1897, the Lieutenant Governor Himachal Pradesh is pleased to empower the District Magistrate Chamba District to take such measures as he may deem necessary to prevent the spread of small pox, which has broken out in some parts of Chamba District.

By order,
MAHABIR SINGH,
Assistant Secretary (Home)
to Govt. Himachal Pradesh.

Simla-4, the 25th July 1952

No. D.80-12/48-III.—The following draft of an amendment which the Himachal Pradesh Government propose to make in the Himachal Pradesh Factories Rules, 1950 in exercise of the powers conferred by the Factories Act, 1948 (Act LXIII of 1948), is published for the information of all persons likely to be affected thereby, and notice is hereby given that the draft will be taken into consideration on or after the 1st of November, 1952. Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any person with respect to the said draft before the date specified will be considered by the Himachal Pradesh Government.

Draft Amendment

Add the following as "Schedule X" to rule 95 of the Himachal Pradesh Factories Rules, 1950, after Schedule IX of rule 95 of the said rules.

SCHEDULE X

Schedule X to Rule 95, under Section 87

(Printing Presses and Type Foundries—Certain lead processes carried therein).

1. Exemption.—Where the Chief Inspector is satisfied that all or any of the provisions of this Schedule are not necessary for the protection of persons employed he may by certificate in writing exempt any factory from all or any of such provisions subject to such conditions as he may specify therein. Such certificate may at any time be revoked by the Chief Inspector.

2. Definitions.—In these regulations—

"Lead material" means—material containing not less than five per cent. of lead.

"Lead process" means—

(a) the melting of lead or any lead material for casting and mechanical composing; and

(b) the recharging of machines with used lead material; or

(c) any other work including removal of dross from melting pots, cleaning of plungers; and

(d) manipulation, movement or other treatment of lead material.

"Efficient exhaust draught" means localised ventilation effected by heat or mechanical means, for the removal of gas, vapour, dust or fumes so as to prevent them from escaping into the air of any place in which work is carried on. No draught shall be deemed efficient which fails to remove gas, vapour, fume or dust at the point where they originate.

3. Exhaust Draught.—None of the following processes shall be carried on except with an efficient exhaust draught:—

(a) melting lead material or slugs;

(b) heating lead material so that vapour containing lead is given off;

or unless carried on in such a manner as to prevent free escape of gas, vapour, fumes or dust into any place in which work is carried on;

or unless carried on in electrically heated and thermostatically controlled melting pots.

Such exhaust draught shall be effected by mechanical means and so contrived as to operate on the dust, fume, gas or vapour given off as closely as may be at its point of origin.

4. Prohibition relating to women and young persons.—No woman or young person shall be employed or permitted to work in any lead process.

5. Separation of certain processes.—Each of the following processes shall be carried on in such a manner and under such conditions as to secure effectual separation from one another and from any other process:

(a) melting of lead or any lead material;

(b) casting of lead ingots;

(c) mechanical composing.

6. Container for dross.—A suitable receptacle with tightly fitting cover shall be provided and used for dross as it is removed from every melting pot. Such receptacle shall be kept covered while in the workroom near the machine except when the dross is being deposited therein.

7. Floor or workroom.—The floor of every workroom where lead process is carried on shall be—

- (a) of cement or similar material so as to be smooth and impervious to water;
- (b) maintained in sound condition; and
- (c) shall be cleansed throughout daily after being thoroughly damped with water at a time when no other work is being carried on at the place.

8. Mess Room.—There shall be provided and maintained for the use of all persons employed in a lead process and remaining on the premises during the meal intervals a suitable mess-room which shall be furnished with sufficient tables and benches.

9. Washing facilities.—There shall be provided and maintained in a cleanly state and in good repair for the use of all persons employed in a lead process—

- (a) A wash place with either—
  - (i) a trough with a smooth impervious surface fitted with a waste pipe without plug, and of sufficient length to allow at least two feet for every five such persons employed at any one time and having a constant supply of water from taps or jets above the trough at intervals of not more than 2 feet; or
  - (ii) at least one wash basin for every five such persons employed at any one time, fitted with a waste pipe and plug and having an adequate supply of water laid on or always readily available; and
- (b) a sufficient supply of clean towels made of suitable material renewed daily with a sufficient supply of soap or other suitable cleansing material.

10. Medical Examination.—

- (a) Every person employed in a lead process shall be examined by the Certifying Surgeon within 14 days of his first employment in such processes and thereafter shall be examined by the Certifying Surgeon at intervals of not more than 3 months, and a record of such examinations shall be entered by the Certifying Surgeon in the special certificate of fitness in Form No. 27.
- (b) A Health Register containing names of all persons employed in any lead process shall be kept in Form No. 17.
- (c) No person after suspension shall be employed in a lead process without the written sanction from the Certifying Surgeon, entered in the Health Register.

11. Food, drinks, etc., prohibited in workrooms.—No food, drink, pan and supari or tobacco shall be consumed or brought by any worker into any work-room in which any lead process is carried on.
